

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., July 11, 1885.

Sir:

Acknowledging the receipt of your letter of the 8th instant, enclosing one from the Melter and Refiner in regard to a quantity of Spelter at your Mint that is unfit "for any purpose connected with his operations", I have to reply that your suggestion that it would be good policy to sell the Spelter after advertisement in newspapers meets with my approval; and I shall therefore obtain from the Secretary authority for you to advertise for proposals for the sale and removal of the metal at an early day.

Very respectfully,

Jas. Kimball

Director
